

Wind Turbine Smashed...By Wind

A giant wind turbine sparked major safety fears in June 2008 when it was smashed by...the wind. A huge propeller broke off the 190ft turbine close to a busy motorway link road. The 30ft blade cracked when the turbine was hit by strong gusts just two months after it began operating. Engineers were called in but could only let the propeller drop to the ground.

Read the full story here.